

Certified Angus Beef LLC

2009 Annual Conference

Commitment to Excellence

Producer Award Nomination Form

Selection Criteria:

The Certified Angus Beef® program will honor selected cattle producers for displaying a lasting commitment to the identification and propagation of superior Angus genetics or their attention to enhancing the carcass traits within their herd through the use of Angus genetics. Eligible candidates must be devoted to the collection and application of genetic and management information that drives the supply of Certified Angus Beef® brand product. It is preferred that the nominated producer has some history of cooperation with a Certified Angus Beef LLC licensed feedlot through cattle feeding or other working relationship that is beneficial to the supply of cattle qualifying for the brand. Award winners will be selected in May. Winning nominees and nominating feedlots will be contacted by phone. Thanks for your help!
